

*Massachusetts 2024 – A Wicked Good Time
November 7-10, 2024, NJEA Weekend*

Have a Wicked good time in Massachusetts! Join us for a long weekend up in New England and learn about a little of the history in Salem, Boston and Plymouth.

On our way north, take a pit stop in CT and visit the Pez Museum, seeing the working factory.

Start spooky the next morning in Salem. Visit The Witch Museum, enjoy a walking tour of the town and visit the House of Seven Gables.

The following day, walk the Freedom trail with an experienced guide and spend some free time in Faneuil Hall before loading up to head to the Plymouth Patuxet Museum.

The afternoon and evening will be spent experiencing the living history museum and completing hands-on activities before eating a 17th century dinner. Afterwards, roll out your sleeping bags and spend the night sleepover style at the museum!

Before heading home at the last day, get a glimpse of Plymouth Rock and the Mayflower II!
